15th Annual Charity Golf Outing

The Delaware Scottish Rite Charity Golf Tournament is an annual event that raises money for a designated worthy organization. This year, we are excited to announce we will be holding our 2023 event at Odessa National Golf Club in New Castle County! We are happily supporting the 436th Force Support Squadron at Dover Air Force Base, and our fifteenth annual tournament is once again dedicated to assisting this worthy organization in providing combat support, community and family services, counseling, and social events for the families and children of our active military men and women who are deployed and serving our Country all around the world.

A Desk with Secrets

The Scottish Rite Masonic Museum & Library recently received this handsome nineteenth-century desk decorated with inlaid Masonic symbols as a generous gift to the collection. Masons are oath bound to keep specific information about Freemasonry, such as ritual, passwords, and recognition signs, to themselves, causing many observers to describe the organization as a secret society or as a society with secrets. This desk fits right in—it has secrets of its own.

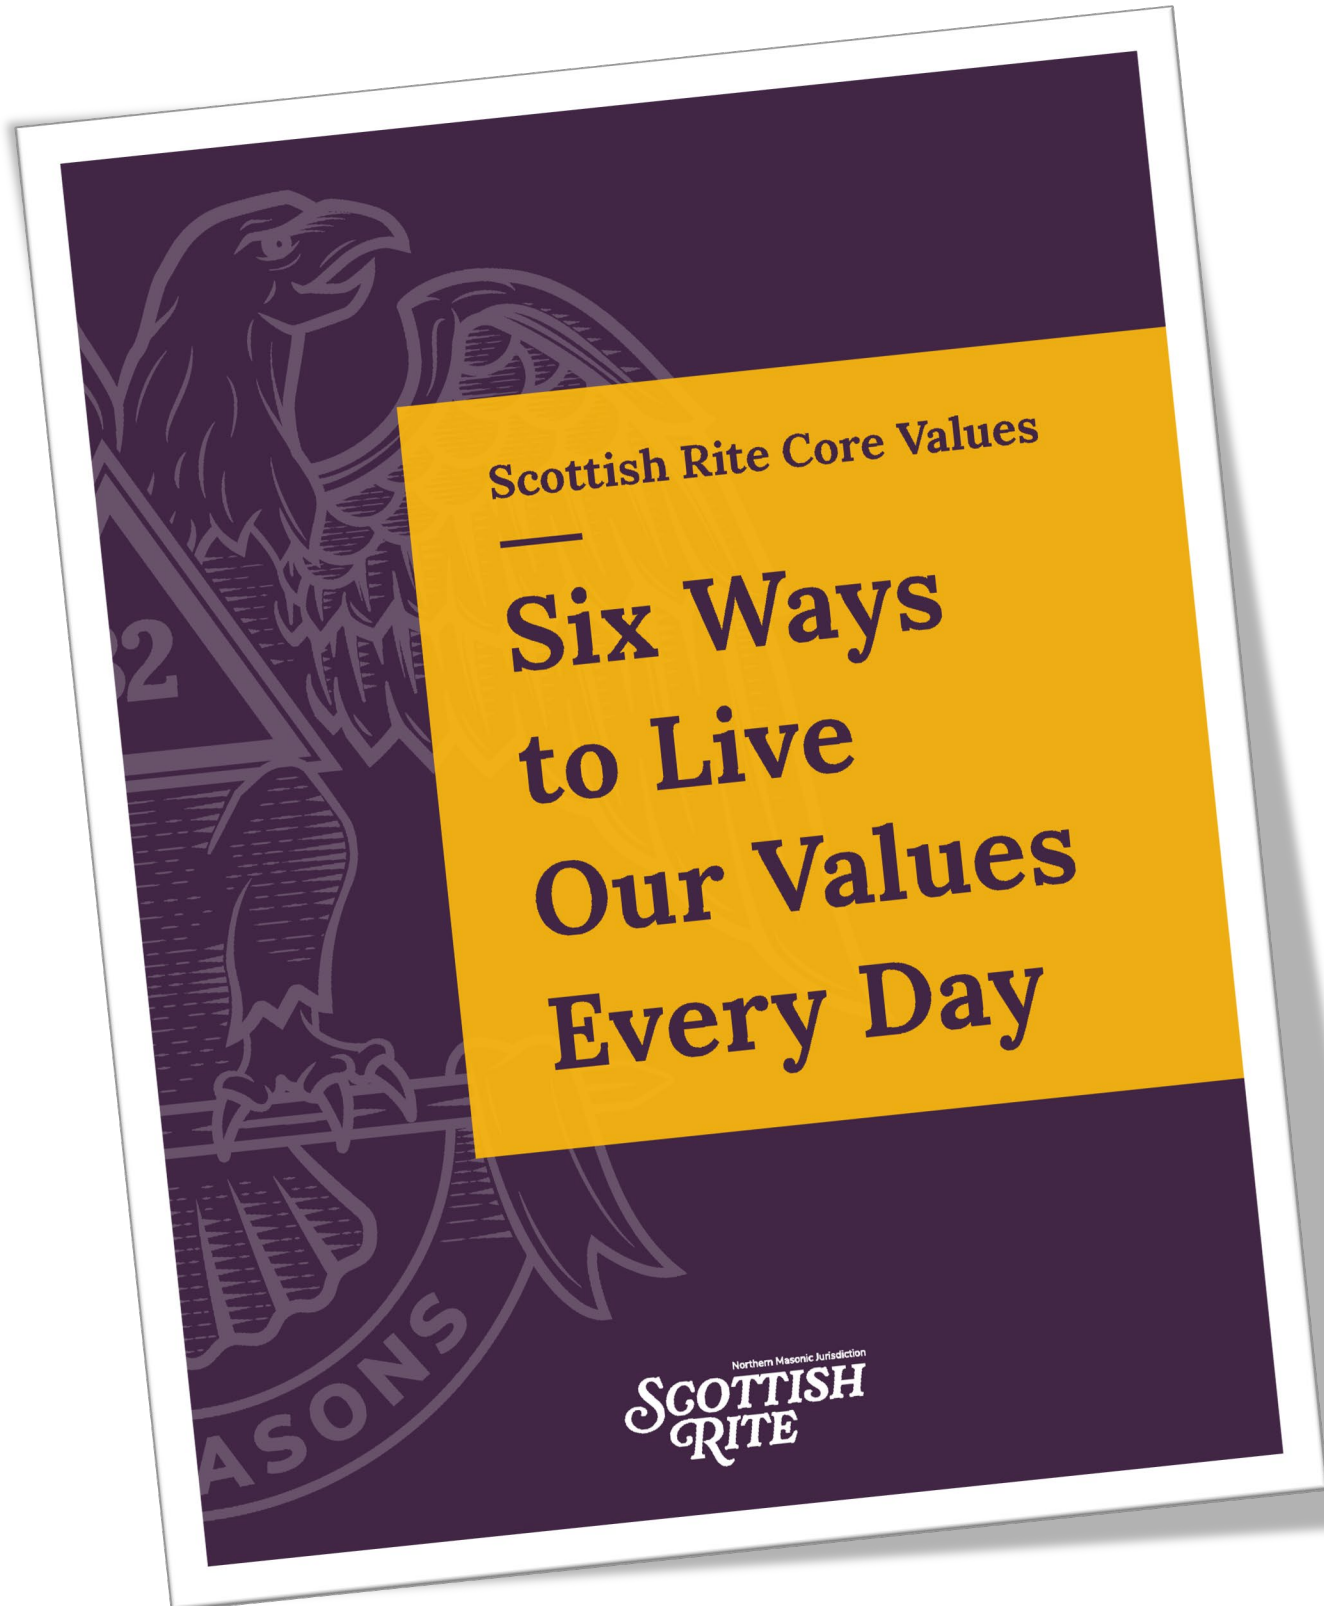

Constructed, in part, of southern beech, this desk came to the museum with a history of having been used in Arkansas and, later, in Utica, New York. Who owned and used it is not known. With several drawers, multiple shelves, and a writing surface, this form of desk falls into the category of secretary or desk-secretary—a piece of furniture that meant business. Only people with a serious amount of papers, objects, and books to organize would need a desk like this one.

Scottish Rite Core Values

Six Ways to Live Our Values Every Day

Northern Masonic Jurisdiction
SCOTTISH RITE

As Freemasons, our degree work helps us become better Masons and better men. The lessons and values are as relevant inside the lodge as they are in our private lives. In the Scottish Rite, we continue our journey to more light with degrees that begin at the 4° and lead all the way to the 32°. Each of our 29 degrees has its own lesson, all of which are imparted through a performance that puts these lessons into the context of everyday life. There is a lifetime of learning in each Masonic degree. So how can we make it easier to bring this wealth of knowledge into our everyday lives?

At the Scottish Rite, we adhere to six core values, in addition to our Masonic values of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth. These values serve as a blueprint to our daily dealings, and an easy shorthand to applying the craft in all we do:

1 Reverence for God:

For Masons, belief in a higher power is a prerequisite for membership. But what does it mean to practice reverence for God daily? Of course, this can mean many things to many people, and the act of reverence can vary greatly by one's religion or personal spirituality. However, with the daily challenges and stresses of life, it is easy to forget we are all one family in the eyes of the Supreme Being. Reminding ourselves of this allows us to slow down and truly honor and respect all of God's creations, big and small, every day.

2 Integrity:

What does your heart tell you in the small but important decisions we face every day? Integrity isn't simply being honest and having moral principles most “Core values are not descriptions of what men do; they describe how to be.

Core values are not strategies or maneuvers to achieve selfish goals.

Core values are not the tools by which to get an advantage in business, relationships or life.

They should guide men in making decisions, predominate in personal relationships, reveal humanity and show what it stands for.”

- Brother James L. Tungate, 33°, “True to the Core,”
The Northern Light Vol. 41, No. 3, August 2010

of the time or just on the big things in life. It is an approach to living, and a lifelong journey. As Scottish Rite Masons we strive, with authenticity and humility, to develop our personal code of honor and of self as men and as Masons.

3 Justice:

It is said that justice is integrity's closest cousin. Personal justice involves one's own ethics and is often referred to as conscience. Striving to live a life of unwavering integrity allows us to clearly see what is fair and reasonable. Applying fairness without contingencies provides moral clarity, imbues empathy, and increases an internal sense of contentment.

4 Tolerance:

America was built on religious, political and social tolerance. Admittedly, it can be hard to be tolerant when faced with people that oppose our strongest, most steadfast beliefs. This is where Masons can make a huge difference in society and in the lives of others. Rather than dismissing opposing beliefs and lifestyles, we can choose tolerance as a moral virtue. Avoiding defensiveness opens our eyes and ears to differing points of view. It is a moral obligation that allows us to come away with a greater understanding of all people, and become better men ourselves.

5 Devotion to Country:

Masons are among the most patriotic citizens in the nation. But devotion to country goes further than pride in the flag. Devotion to Country is standing up for the rights of our fellow Masons and our fellow citizens. It's having the courage to hold our leaders accountable to our founding fathers' ideals, no matter from which side of the aisle they come. As a Mason, you can help others from all walks of life share in the pride that comes from standing together as one.

6 Service to Humanity:

Of all the Scottish Rite values, this may be the one that comes most naturally to Masons. By our very nature, we live to serve our Brethren and our communities. Taking time to share, teach, mentor a new Mason, and lead by example are hugely valuable services you can provide to the world and to our Brotherhood each and every day. But with work, family and other commitments, it's not always easy to find the time. And that's ok. Service is more than a tally of volunteer hours. As Masons, we are in service when we actively apply our values in our everyday lives. Living our truth in harmony with our values is, by extension, an enormous service to our families, our Brothers, and the world around us.

Gold Hermes Award

The Supreme Council is proud to announce that our newest anthemic video “The Call” (part of the “Not Just A Man. A Mason.” campaign) has been awarded a Gold Hermes Award for marketing excellence!

Named for the Greek messenger, Hermes Creative Awards are conferred by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals. “The Call” is recognized for “talent that exceeds a high standard of excellence and whose work serves as a benchmark for the industry. It is an outstanding achievement and service to the marketing profession.”

Chosen from more than 6,500 entries, we join the ranks of General Dynamics, CVS, Ikea, and Fidelity who also won gold.

“The Call” celebrates the vow all Masons take and how that oath is upheld throughout the Masonic journey. Click on the video below to watch.

Fun fact: the Hermes trophy was created by the same folks who designed the awards for the Golden Globes, Emmy’s, MTV, Academy of Country Music, YouTube, The Voice, and Dancing with the Stars.

Casting Call !!

One of the truly unique opportunities offered by the Scottish Rite is the experience of performing on stage to teach our core values: Reverence for God, Integrity, Devotion to Country, Justice, Tolerance, and Service to Humanity. There are many levels through which one can participate. Of course there is the obvious role of learning a part and performing it on stage. These come in all sizes from a few lines to major roles. There are also those supporting roles which require no lines to memorize, only positioning and interacting on stage. Then there are those behind the scenes roles such as props, lighting, sound, and stage managing. Which ever level might interest you, know that all roles are important and come together at every Reunion to make Scottish Rite Masonry a truly memorable experience.

Contact Bro. Greg Correll and let him know your interest in joining in on the fun. Whether it is a non-speaking part, a few lines, a major roll, or behind the scenes, it is as they say, "there are no minor rolls in theater". This is one of those "Growth opportunities that masonry is all about. Come on out and elevate yourself and make new friends.
